PINOT NOIR 2018

Follow your heart, dare to explore
And discover this delectable Pinot Noir
Seductively sensuous, delicious and plush
Sit back and savour, in La La Land there is no rush

Grape:

Pinot Noir

Where:

Victoria, Australia

Colour:

Cherry Red

Smells Like:

A sexy wine. Vibrant red summer berries and floral violet and rose petal.

Tastes Like:

Seductively silky and rich. Juicy raspberry and cherry. Hints of rhubarb and rosemary and a touch of vanillin oak.

When to drink:

Perfect right now or can cellar for a couple of years.

Ways to enjoy La La Land:

Around a table with loads of good conversation and great food. Think ploughman's platters, flaky beef or chicken & leek pot pies or a creamy mushroom soup.

How:

Some super tasty estate Pinot Noir grapes were fermented and racked a couple of times to extract colour and soft, juicy tannins. Gentle pressing and malolactic fermentation was followed by three months on high quality American oak.

Technical bits:

Alc: 14.0% pH: 3.63
Acidity: 5.6g/L RS: <2.0g/L

What Else:

Vegetarian & Vegan friendly.
